Agreement on the use of reports and information obtained from the Horticultural Development Company

As a condition of membership of the Horticultural Development Company:

1. I recognise that all reports and publications provided by the Horticultural Development Company are copyright, and I will not copy them in part or in whole without written consent from the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board except for use within my organisation.
2. I will not divulge the details of research funded by the Horticultural Development Company to any individual or organisation that is based outside the UK, or to any individual or organisation that is not a member or levy-payer of the Horticultural Development Company.
3. I will ensure that all employees of my organisation are aware of this agreement, and that they also abide by its terms.

Notes

For the purposes of this agreement, Northern Ireland and the Channel Island of Guernsey are deemed to be outside the UK.

Members who are interested in particular projects must contact the HDC through their designated technical contact (as detailed on the application form). We will then be pleased to supply the technical contact with a copy of the report which may be photocopied/distributed internally provided the conditions laid out above are adhered to.
